

Benches provide a resting place, perfect for a picnic!

Four-mile hiking trail with:

- 2-mile loop, easy to moderate difficulty, family friendly
- 4-mile loop, additional two miles of four-mile trail, moderate difficulty
- Follows wildlife trails into the canyon, no signs of civilization
- Crosses a spring-fed bottom with sandstone water basins
- Many types and textures of moss rock
- Trail loops through many vegetation changes
- Abundant wildlife can be seen

Trail Markings:

- ST with Arrows on cedar posts
- 4" Aluminum diamonds nailed to tree bark
- 2"x4" hatchet blaze in tree bark, painted white
- Cairns (piles of stone/rock)
- 8-foot brush path

The Junction of 2-mile & 4-mile loops.

Serenity Trail Newcastle WY

The Serenity Trail was created and is maintained to provide residents and visitors with a quality of life infrastructure. It is a short distance to travel for hikers and/or mountain bikers, to escape into the wilderness for a period of time.

Serenity Trail

Newcastle
Wyoming

Travel 2.7 miles north of Newcastle on U.S. Highway 85, turn right off 85 onto gravel road. Travel a short distance on gravel road to marked trail head parking area.

Hwy 85

Serenity Trail

-  2 Mile Trail
-  4 Mile Trail

